

Celebrating Black History Month

Governor Glenn Youngkin had a class discussion about "What is Freedom" along with the FMA Education Programs Manager. Together they engaged students as they learned about the experiences from individuals across many eras from the 1619 landing of the first enslaved Africans in the Virginia Colony, the Contraband Decision of 1861 at Freedom's Fortress, and the subsequent formation of the United States Colored Troops during the Civil War.

