

Recognizing the National Champs: This week, Governor Youngkin welcomed and recognized the national champions of the Richard Bland Women's Volleyball team. They completed an impressive season of 34-3 this past fall. In the program's second National Tournament appearance, the team went on to win the NJCAA Division II National Championship in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

